Chapter 6: Freedom vs. Familiarity

Two great confrontations between God and man

A. Confronting our preference for the _____.

As much as we want freedom, we want _____ more.

"My idea of God is not a divine idea. It has to be shattered time after time. He shatters it Himself. He is the great iconoclast- the breaker and destroyer of images...Jesus is the supreme example; he leaves all previous ideas of the Messiah in ruins."

–C.S. Lewis, A Grief Observed

When you're ready to tackle the familiar, to get healthy:

It will get _____ before it gets _____.

Today's Equipping Point

Never leave a legacy of _____

Jesus said to another man, "Follow me!" But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the people who are dead bury their own dead. You must go and tell about the kingdom of God." Another man said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me go and say good-bye to my family." Jesus said, "Anyone who begins to plow a field but keeps looking back is of no use in the kingdom of God."

Luke 9:59-62

B. God confronts our notions of _____.

Six key leadership principles directly from the staff of Moses:

1. As a leader, _____ is not your responsibility.
