Lt. Mike Murphy (May 7, 1976 – June 28, 2005) was a United States Navy SEAL officer who was awarded the Medal of Honor, for his actions during the War in Afghanistan.

He was also the first member of the Navy to receive the award since the Vietnam War.

The heroics of Lt. Murphy and his Seal Team are chronicled in the movie Lone Survivor

Since his death, a United States Navy destroyer, a post office, a combat training pool at Naval Station Newport, a Navy Bachelor Apartment complex, a Sea Cadet unit, a park, a monument on Penn State's campus, and Patchogue-Medford High School have been named in his honor.
